OF RICHMOND

February 10, 2019

The word “rejoice” is a call to joy. The term was a watchword among early Christians. More than a term of worship, it was a word of salutation. Jesus used it as a greeting (Matt. 28:9). Paul used it as a farewell (2 Cor. 13:11). We typically greet one another with “Hello” or “Goodbye.” But what an encouragement it would be if we entered and departed one another’s presence with a call to rejoice.

Call to Worship

Leader: *Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever!
Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
whom he has redeemed from trouble
and gathered in from the lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
for his wondrous works to the children of man!
For he satisfies the longing soul,
and the hungry soul he fills with good things.*

Psalm 107:1-3, 8-9

This is a time to be honest with God about our sin and ask Him for forgiveness through Jesus.

Confession and Assurance

Lord and Father, we confess that sin impacts every part of us:

Our mouths are boastful, our minds are self-focused,
our eyes covet, our ears seek out flattery,
our hands serve mainly ourselves, our feet walk away from Your call.
And it all comes from a heart that doubts Your love and provision.

What hope do we have? Who can deliver us from bondage to sin?

Only Your Son, Jesus Christ, whose righteousness is ours through faith.

Forgive our sin and help us to rest in Your solid love.

Spirit, make us look and act more like Jesus. Amen.

*All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned – every one – to his own way;
and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.*

The Lord's Supper

The Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Leader: Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of our faith:

People: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.
